New limits take effect from 1 December 2026

Workplace exposure limits are coming – start preparing now!

Undertake a risk assessment

Review what hazardous chemicals you have on site with your workers

Review safety data sheets

Seek additional help if required

Check the WorkSafe website

Engage an occupational hygienist

Employers must ensure that workers and others at the workplace are not exposed to levels of airborne contaminants above the workplace exposure limits.
